BOGUS BASIN ANNOUNCES NEW BOARD MEMBERS

BOISE, Idaho – November 16, 2016 Bogus Basin Recreational Association, Inc., a 501c(3) nonprofit organization that provides accessible, affordable and fun year-round mountain recreation and education, announced today that two new members have been selected to serve on the organization's Board of Directors.

Michel Bourgeau is an Account Executive in Corporate Health Services at Saint Alphonsus Regional Medical Center. Michel is responsible for developing collaborative relationships with small businesses, corporations, school districts and other community organizations in areas of occupational medicine, corporate wellness and value health networks. Prior to joining Saint Alphonsus he served as development director and varsity B coordinator at the Boise State University Department of Athletics. Bourgeau received his B.B.A. from Boise State University and an MA in physical education from Idaho State University. A former Boise State and Canadian Football League professional athlete, Bourgeau was inducted into the Boise State Athletic Hall of Fame in 1990. Michel, a former coach for the Bogus Basin Ski Education Foundation, has enjoyed the slopes at Bogus Basin with his family for many years.

Ross Borden is Finance Director at Capital City Development Corporation where he directs the Agency's financial and contracting affairs. Prior to joining CCDC in 2013, Ross gained vast and valuable experience as Director of Intergovernmental Affairs for the City of Boise Mayor's Office. He is an Idaho native with undergraduate and master's degrees from the University of Idaho. Ross has enjoyed many wonderful days and nights at Bogus Basin with his wife and three children. He looks forward to helping Bogus Basin remain affordable as it moves into its bright future.
